Cathy
Imagine little ole me being able to have the cover.
Since your by best buddy at P.A. I will be frank. Without you these last years would have been booring for who else would devide this in study with Sr. Rita matching those nights and nides at the "Note" can't be forgotten or relieved (door). All the way back from the "Note" until men not being able to see the road because of the strang smoke in the car, who can forget? this senior year will probably produce many unforgettable times. Thanks for the find invite and I'll tell him about it, who knows maybe there is an extra for you. Seriously stay the way are. I hope after graduation we stay as close if you little ole (chuckle)
buddy (no

But I'm sure you'll have it.
This year & in everything else
good luck in Student Council, like that; seriously though those awful names & things at breakfast - culinings we you're in that morning
then - the frame of mind to & from the "note" & and

Cathy
I don't want to say too much or you might get in trouble.
I hope you straighten up this year so I can write something nice in the next yearbook.
Mary

well even if you Cathy
would like me to the first to mess up your book I guess I'll still fully realize how completely

Hail Mary full of grace—God's masterpiece of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women, Most Holy Virgin, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, our Eucharistic King. Holy Mary, Mother of Divinity, pray for us, even as we manifest our true devotion by the consecration of our year 1962-1963 at Nazareth to you.

And always

cherish, Blessed Lady, our studies and
treasured moments and keep us in the tabernacle of your precious heart.

Teach us always to have recourse to thee, that we may one day see thy crowned holiness.

Classes

We study together, striving to perfect our intellectual faculties, conquering the great tasks which face us as each year brings us triumph and rewards of greater richness.

English

Sr. Rosina helps Theresa Dillon with her noun clauses.

"Sophomore students J. O'Brien, P. Beyersdorf, and E. Matej discuss the importance of good English background in literature."

As Judy Kastely recites her soliloquy from Hamlet, Lydia Faustman silently muses, "What a Ham!"

Languages

The Latin I Students under Sr. Rita hold an informal class in the recreation room.

Sr. M. Pierre helps Margaret Verhage with her geography of France.

"Le participe passe de voir est vu." dit Mr. Large as the French I class listens intently.

Sister Conrad explains the function of the human eye to Kathleen Ready, Cynthia Johnson, Sally Pawloski, and Mary Hagerty.

Science

Mary Kuchmek demonstrates a physics problem to Claudia Haskamp, who seems to understand.

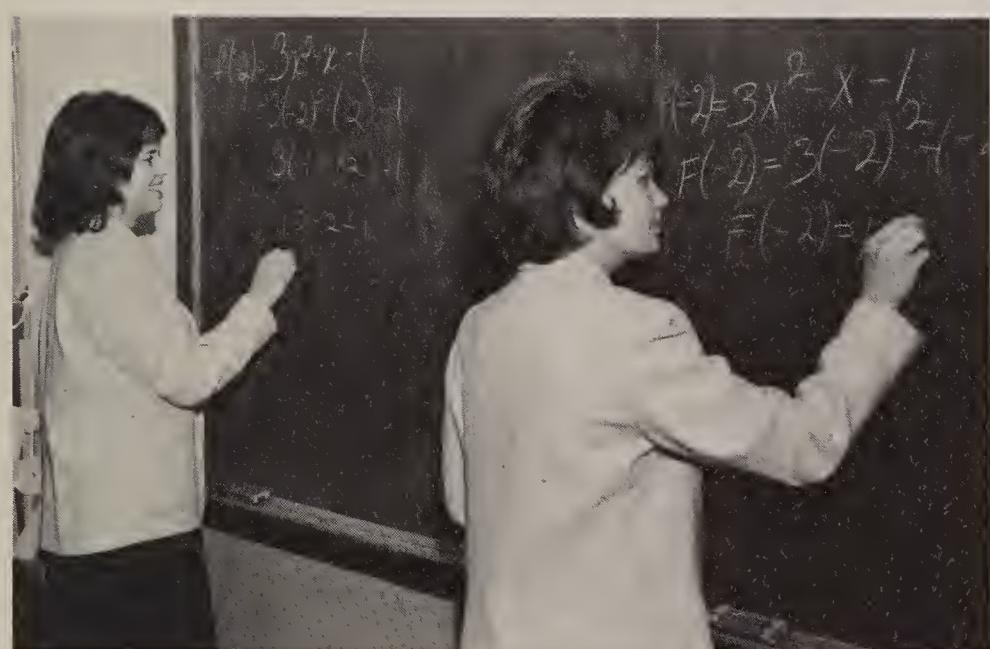

Working with acids is serious business to Chemistry students Kit Young and June Guernsey.

Mathematics

Instruments poised, Judy Kastely and Judy Zioncheck delve into the fascinating world of Analytic Geometry.

Who said Algebra II can't be fun?
Elizabeth Bryant seems to think so while Mary Day is more dubious.

Cathy Stanton shows Marilyn Kucinich the shape of a trapezoid.

Someone seems eager to question a point which Theresa Dillon explains in the Church History Class.

Religion

Elizabeth Matej and Lynn Porter prepare a bulletin board on the Sacraments and the Mass in the 10th grade Religion Class.

Margaret Verhage seems interested in what Sr. Kilian is explaining to Kathy Morrison in the Sociology Class.

Social Study

Andrea Mario reports on current events in American Problems Class while Lydia Faustman waits to recite.

Marina Littig points out the various illustrations which accompanied her talk concerning the costuming of the ancient Grecians during World History Class.

Abraham Lincoln is the subject of Kathy Ambro's artistic achievement for the 11th grade History Class. Admiring her portrait are Margaret Deem, Pam Beach, and Nancy Churgo.

Sr. Ann William instructs Jean MacVicar, on marginal setting in the typing II Class.

Ten little typists sitting in a row, one plunks fast and the other plunks slow.

"Cut . . . Pin . . . Stitch . . ." Mary Day, Katy Morrison, and Ina Singlton, work hard on a dress for spring wear.

Dramatic Arts

King MacVicar appears to "rule the roost" before and during the performance of "Rumplestiltskin." Cast includes Jean MacVicar, Margaret Deem, Victoria Konieczka, Maria Castillo, and Diedre Mathews.

Art

Under Sister Pierre's guidance the art students help lend a touch of beauty to the many bulletin boards around the school.

Margaret Deem and Lydia Faustman are hard at work, while Victoria Konieczka receives some advice from Marina Littig.

Clubs And Organizations

Opportunities are presented and participation is encouraged as the qualities of leadership and cooperation are developed.

June calls the Student Council together for the business of the day.

Student Council

Sister M. Philomena meets with the officers to plan the program for the next assembly.

The Inter-School Council members learn to practical applications of democracy in their associations with other schools in the Kalamazoo area.

School Leadership

The Humanities Seminar members hold a discussion on the week's lecture.

Active Sodality members learn to aid others while they devote their lives to Mary. From left: J. MacVicar, S. Mendoza, P. Smiertka, C. Stanton, M. Castillo, M. Dalla, J. Guernsey, J. Zioncheck, A. Mario, M. Kostelaz, T. Dillon, M. Kuchmek, and B. Balla.

Sodality

Retreat is the most important event in the school year. And, as the retreat comes to a close, the girls gathered to express their gratitude for the guidance Father M. J. Hussey S. J. offered them.

Sodality candidates wait in due expectation of the day they will become active Sodalists. Top row: M. Westberg, J. Medonis, J. Olach, K. O'Donnell, G. Sturmoski, P. Kneller, R. Stanton, E. Matej, M. Haggerty, bottom row: R. Willette, B. Crookston, A. Brown, S. Fisher, M. Rogers, N. Brown, L. Porter, C. Johnson.

G.A.A.

Activities

The happy moments are shared, the personality of each girl is enlarged, and our social habits are developed.

Founder's Day

The annual Founder's Day Program with guests, Father Lyons, and representatives from Nazareth College, Borgess School of Nursing, Nazareth Academy Mother's Guild, and Barbour Hall was honored to have Sister Mary Celestine deliver the address. Sister told the guests about the life of Monsignor O'Brien, founder of Nazareth, Barbour Hall, Borgess Hospital, and Nazareth College. He was named Domestic Prelate by Pope Pius X in 1913, seven years after the building which is now Nazareth Academy was erected. Monsignor died in 1921.

Sister Celestine was the first President of Nazareth and has taught at the Academy and the College. She was in the first group of Sisters to be professed here at the Nazareth Convent. The Senior Class was fortunate to have Sister teach their English Literature Class this year.

Guest speaker at this years Founder's Day Program was Sister Mary Celestine.

Mother's Guild

The Mother's Guild founded in 1940, holds many activities each year to assist the school in its social and financial program. The annual smorgasbord for Founder's Day is one of these activities. Guild officer's are Mrs. Ambrose Haskamp, Treas; Mrs. Gerald Littig, Pres; Mrs. Martin Kneller, V. Pres; Mrs. Ward Westburg, Sec.

Our Principal

Special recognition and a vote of thanks given by all

On Sister's Feast Day she was presented with a bouquet of roses on behalf of the whole student body.

A candid shot of some of the faculty catches the Sister's enjoying the tea which followed the program given for Sister Philomena.

Christmas Play

Bringing tidings
of great joy

Members of the choral speaking group are: K. Young, S. Mendoza, K. Pratt, P. Owel, K. O'Donnell, M. Kucinich, M. Kostelaz, B. Brehm, S. Fisher, B. Balla, M. Kuchmek, V. Kenieczka, Y. Korabik, M. Rogers, A. Brown, J. Guernsey, S. Kozminski, and J. MacVicar.

Spring Enchantment

Queen, Genie Slatmeyer, poses with first attendant Mary Ann Kostelaz and her date Larry Arbanas, and second attendant June Guernsey and her date Dave McMorrow, before beginning her reign over the Prom festivities.

We hope everyone had as nice a time as Judy and her date seem to be having.

Mardi Gras

Theresa Dillon and father prefer to sit this one out.

The Hi-Fi Dance sponsored by G.A.A. provided a fun evening for all those who attended.

The smile on Pat Beyersdorf's face is certainly genuine. Pat has just won the big prize of the evening, a clock radio.

Halloween

Halloween always brings out the ingenuity of people in the costumes they turn out.

Lincoln and his cabinet discuss pertinent facts concerning the Negroes. Cabinet members are: N. Churgo, A. Konieczka, M. Deem, C. Stanton, C. Courtney, K. Pratt, and B. Kosanke.

Emancipation Proclamation

This Negro family plays an important role in the Junior Class production commemorating the signing of the Emancipation Proclamation.

Little Women

The cast of this year's Senior Play takes time out to pose for a special group picture. Mary Ann Kostelaz as Hannah, Barb Brehm as Meg, Maria Castillo as Beth, Marina Littig as Jo Carolyn Pilaar as Aunt March, Jean MacVicar as Amy, Sally Mendoza as Aunt Caroll, Sara McGrail as Mrs. March and Judy Zioncheck as Sallie Moffatt.

Amy seems to be having some difficulty with Aunt March.

Jo practices her dramatics, which seems to hold everyone's attention, and Amy attempts her part also.

The Candlelight Ceremony

The final step toward graduation is the capping, a moment long awaited.

The Juniors eagerly await their turn to receive their rings. It is a moment with a special feeling.

memories never to be forgotten

As the year ends we look especially to the Seniors. Each of them is anxious for the work that lays ahead and our best wishes go with them. May they never forget their Nazareth.

Underclassmen

The promise of the future is strong. There are new friendships to be made and experience to gain. Slowly there is the transition from confusion to confidence.

Candid the good times we will not soon forget

The Sophomore's were certainly not fenced in most of the year.

Conversation was light and the food was good. The father's proved to be interesting dates.

The many hours are worth it aren't they Cathy?

Who will forget this smile?

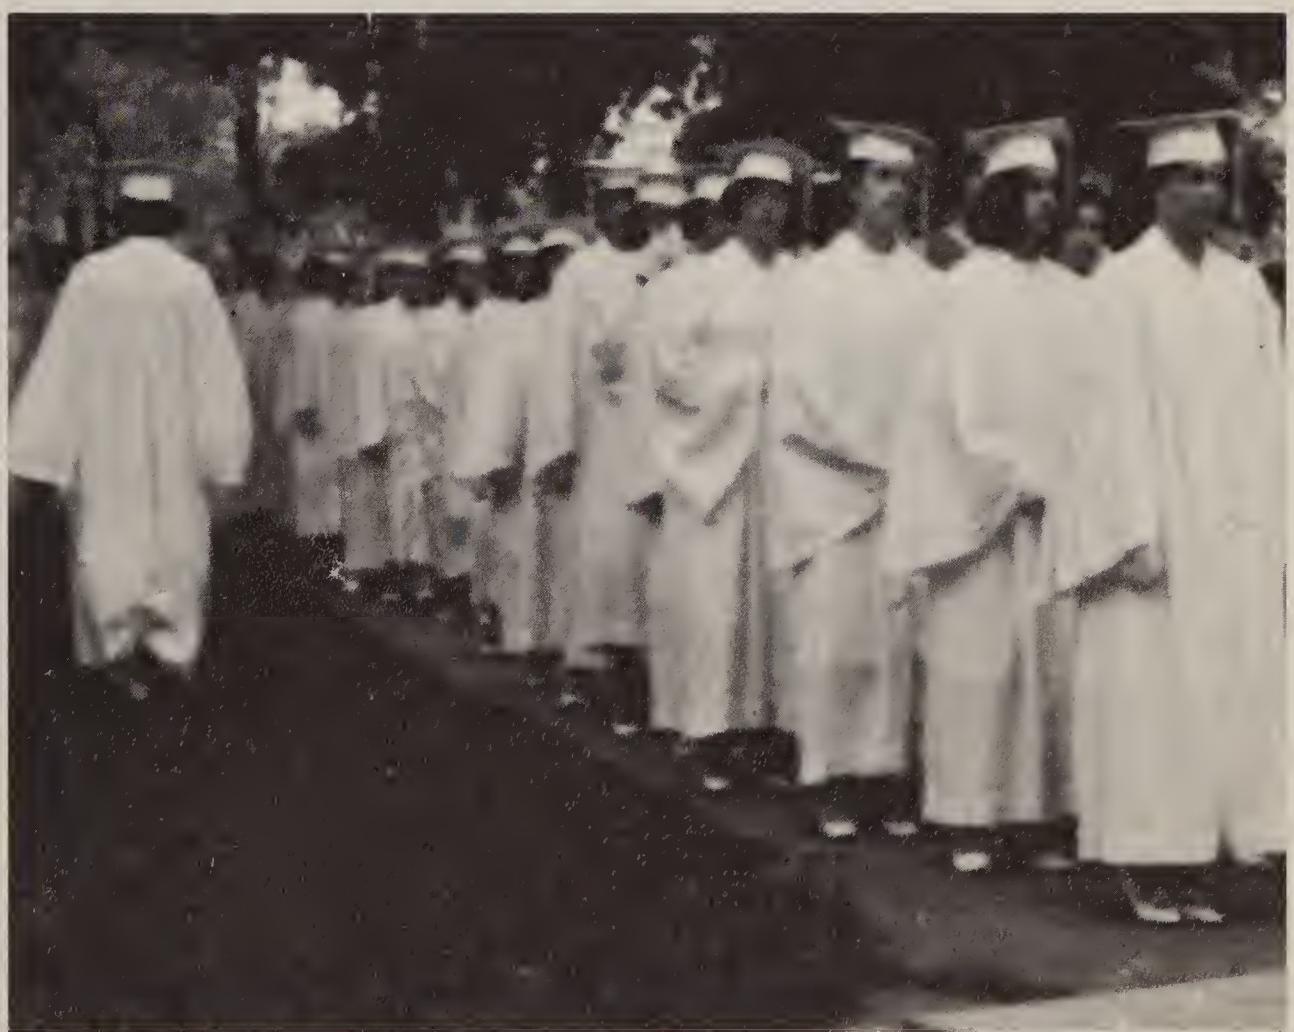

There must be an easier way to get exercise.

Graduates

The memories of four years, a diploma, hopeful dreams of the future, and finally, graduation.

Dear Cathy,

Now that you are a senior and the celebrated President of Student Council, I hardly know what to say to one as illustrious as you. However, I shall try. You have really been a good friend to me. Best of luck in your senior year and always. God bless a loyal BANG.

"They're sweet
To our sweet and at times
hilarious & treat our "cousin" peas." Without you to brighten up our day I don't think we could exist.
You have such a dynamic personality as many people know (D.K. etc.) and even through you are conceited and terribly intellectual at times (you know what I mean, you) you're sweet (Uck! Uck!).
I'll never forget those

Did Rosey told me to write a long letter but you know I'm no good at that.
Leave the letter writing to you - 0.15. you're a great nut that's a pain to be with.
Keep doing the Montsey bath shake everything off me and bad. Give me my hair this year and the next fixing up my hair kids
God love you
Marti
p.s. You wouldn't have time to go now if we go.

Best,
Be a real sweet gal whom I've always liked.
I wish we were better - friends. I'll always be a member in the grand era and memories. How you helped me friend my school spirit. Thanks a lot. Be good and keep smiling.

Ross,
Go a real true to life now real riot tomatoes we've had up to a real grown you always have your home remember May you have fun and good luck
Good luck
Chris & "Patsy"
Steve Parker

Ran a real errand for you a long time. Friend of yours as well as me
will stay here a short time.
I've a start made.
I'll say as Mr. Beck said.

Rox, It seems like in all the years we've always known each other to do something outrageous to do something every year, from buying or sending the ball we had with the "Mardi Gras" last year. If we just one big expensive Best of luck place all to your future going some try to be good and stay out of trouble.

Free,
In my god we all spiriin you all I com
to grandest when I reselt Naparetta when you always back you feel you always make me what you always to everybody no matter how a smile for family to always ever have a smile hope me. I hope you have a smile hope me.
I think it's, felicite me.
stay friends. Love, Mary

I've enjoyed being in school
with you all these past few years. I'm sure we will continue to do so in the future. I hope you always have good fun.
Kathy 65

Cathy + Cass, It's kind of hard to tell two birds with one stone. I wish you both all the luck you'll ever need in the future

Pasi
To one of the dearest and sweetest juniors. To you we had fun knowing the fun. We've had blues.
Forgot all about it. We've had blues.
and the Mandi had blues
had a few other and had blues.
Well good luck friend
June 1965

Dearest Rosemarie, I'm deeply disappointed in you. After all, who am I going to yell to from my 2nd Soprano Section, we could make beautiful music if only you'd cooperate.

But that's the way it goes.
Good luck in French class, but you'll never be as good as I because the bloody Irish, and the same French don't mix.

Always,

hynn

See

Be good & God bless you,

P.S. (to Cuthy)

N.A. ever had. No — I'll never forget and nights!

P.S. (continued)

Keep smiling

and you'll

Weller soon
friends!

(It's really sweet!)

Yours truly - George - Johnson

Rosi,
I can't think of anyone person
I've enjoyed being around more than you.
You have the person
I alway of a wonderful gal!
I hope your years in and out of school will never change you too much, will never chanage you decide to do. Best luck in all you

Always,
L ANNIE

Rosi,

To a really neat girl that I've known for a long, long time. We've come a long way since kindergarten and with a little luck we might go farther.
Be good and good luck.

Nancy

hard — work hard the year we come and my mother will help us to the best of her changes that we can get, however if you have any trouble or if you have any questions ask me now that I am here and I am sorry I may not know as much as you do but I am here to help you and I am here to help you and the people who are here
